Tegan Millspaw
Judicial Watch
501 School Street SW, Suite 725
Washington, DC 20024

Dear Ms. Millspaw:

This is in acknowledgement and response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, sent to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) on January 8, 2010, and received in this office on January 14, 2010. In your communications, you requested all records and/or reports of Mexican Government incursions, encounters, and sightings on the U.S. and Mexico border.

A search of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) databases produced a total of 26 pages of records responsive to your request. CBP has determined that 26 pages of the records are partially released, pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6), and (b)(7)(C).

Exemption 6 exempts from disclosure personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right he privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test.

Exemption 7(C) protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes that could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This exemption takes particular note of the strong interests of individuals, whether they are suspects, witnesses, or investigators, in not being unwarrantably associated with alleged criminal activity. That interest extends to persons who are not only the subjects of the investigation, but those who may have their privacy invaded by having their identities and information about them revealed in connection with an investigation. Based upon the traditional recognition of strong privacy interest in law enforcement records, categorical withholding of information that identifies third parties in law enforcement records is ordinarily appropriate. As such, I have determined that the privacy interest in the identities of individuals in the records you have requested clearly outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Please note that any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into this determination.

You have a right to appeal our withholding determination. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 60 days of the date of this letter, to: FOIA Appeals, Policy and Litigation Branch, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, 799 Ninth St. NW,

2

Washington, DC 20229-1177, following the procedures outlined in the DHS regulations at 6 C.F.R. § 5.9. Your envelope and letter should be marked "FOIA Appeal." Copies of the FOIA and DHS regulations are available at www.dhs.gov/foia.

If you need to contact this office again about this matter, our phone number is 202-325-0150. Please notate file number 2010F04655 on any future correspondence to CBP related to this request.

Sincerely,

Elissa Kay
Acting Director, FOIA Office
