President Barack Obama said that ISIS can be shrunk to “a manageable problem” if the international community works to “isolate” it on Wednesday.

“If we are joined by the international community, we can continue to shrink ISIL's sphere of influence, its effectiveness, its financing, its military capabilities, to the point where it is a manageable problem...what we've got to do is make sure that we are organizing the Arab world, the Middle East, the Muslim world, along with the international community, to isolate this cancer,” Obama stated.

The president also declared that ISIS is “first and foremost destructive to the Muslim world and the Arab world and North Africa, and the people who live there. They're the ones who are most severely affected ... and we've got to combat it in a sustained, effective way.”

He further claimed that the US knew that terrorist groups outside of al-Qaeda such as ISIS were a threat, saying “one of the concerns that we have had is the development of terrorist networks and organizations, separate and apart from al-Qaeda ... we've seen ISIS to be the first one that has broken through, but we anticipated this a while back, and it was reflected in my West Point speech.”

Of course a genocidal maniac like Obama believes that normative muslims are "manageable". ISIS muslims are doing the job that Obama wants done.

Among other things yes, indeed, they are.

Obama is delusional, and a narcissistic sociopath. His comment of ISIS being a 'manageable problem' shows how out-of-touch with reality he has become, more so in the last few weeks and months.

He refuses to accept that the policies of the last six years: chief among them the failure to deal with threats on the horizon, and recognizing true psychotic evil. He acts as if ISIS is either a aberration or a 'vast right-wing conspiracy' bent on world domination.

He is a complete failure, and our nation will pay in blood for it.

He also said that muslim world would cease hostilities once he was inaugurated.

He was right. The world saw a weak scared TARGET, and not a power house to be respected and feared.
