On May 6th, Hillary Clinton gave a speech at a National Council for Behavioral Health conference in which she suggested that "fully licensed" and "fully validated" gun owners cannot be trusted to make sound decisions regarding gun usage.

According to Politico (<http://www.politico.com/story/2014/05/hillary-clinton-gun-control-obamacare-106392.html>), Clinton's said:

At the rate we're going, we're going to have so many people with guns everywhere, fully licensed, fully validated, in settings where [one] could be in a movie theater, and they don't like someone chewing gum loudly or talking on their cell phone and decide they have the perfect right to defend themselves against the gun chewer or cell phone user by shooting.

As Breitbart News reported (<http://www.breitbart.com/Big-Government/2014/05/06/Hillary-Clinton-Gun-Laws-Are-Too-Lenient-Must-Be-Changed>), Clinton also criticized lenient gun laws in her May 6th speech. Saying the idea "that almost anyone can have a gun anywhere at any time" has "become almost an article of faith."

She suggested that this is not beneficial and that gun laws need to be "reined in."

I fear Hitlery more than I do obama. She is much, much older and much more skilled and honed as an evil wannabe tyrant.

HITLERY WOULD BE WORSE THAN obama, IF.... she is allowed to be victorious in her evil ascension to power.

The cases she referred to in the movie theater involved off duty or retired police officers. Is she suggesting they shouldn't be armed either?

She is also neglecting to mention the man was tried and convicted.

If you look at the way cops act today lets face it, its bad enough they are armed while at work. Are you really going to hold up present day cops as protecting anyones safety aside from their own cowardly hide. Not to mention the number of incidents of off duty cops acting like a$$hole$.
