Netanyahu “made all sorts of claims” about the interim nuclear deal with Iran that turned out to be untrue. Yet Obama mischaracterized Netanyahu’s remarks, and misrepresented Iranian compliance with the terms of the interim deal.

Obama’s full comment on Monday was: “Netanyahu made all sorts of claims. This was going to be a terrible deal. This was going to result in Iran getting 50 billion dollars worth of relief. Iran would not abide by the agreement. None of that has come true. It has turned out that in fact, during this period we’ve seen Iran not advance its program. In many ways, it’s rolled back elements of its program.”

However, each element of that claim is untrue—and some are outright lies.

The deal is a “terrible” deal, by the standards of the international community when Obama came to office, when the UN Security Council had banned any nuclear enrichment at all by Iran.

Furthermore, Netanyahu did not say that Iran would receive “50 billion dollars worth of relief.”

Obama seems to be misquoting an Israeli claim that sanctions relief would be $20 billion rather than the $7 billion the Obama administration promised. The Israelis were later proven to be correct.

Obama is also wrong when he claims Iran has abided by the agreement. It has violated that agreement in at least five ways—and one of those violations was so serious that the U.S. actually complained to the UN Security Council.

Iran claims otherwise, of course—which is why Democratic Sen. Bob Menendez of New Jersey likened Obama’s rhetoric to “talking points...straight out of Tehran.” Obama’s apparent confusion shows exactly why Bibi’s speech is necessary and urgent.

The Alinskyite-in-Chief is taking a page from Rules of Radicals, the Bible of the Radical Left to discredit Netanyahu.

* RULE 5: "Ridicule is man's most potent weapon." There is no defense. It's irrational. It's infuriating. It also works as a key pressure point to force the enemy into concessions.

* RULE 12: Pick the target, freeze it, personalize it, and polarize it." Cut off the support network and isolate the target from sympathy. Go after people and not institutions; people hurt faster than institutions.

Saul Alinsky dedicated his work to Lucifer, who was the first individual to win his own kingdom. Considering the partners Obama is willing to get into bed with, one has to wonder if Obama's actions are dedicated to that same individual.
