FYI. Happy to speak out based on my very positive experience working with all of you if that helps - on or off the record.

Let me know.

Hi Mara,

Thanks for getting back to me on Facebook and providing your e-mail; I do appreciate it.

This is a bit of a sensitive topic, so forgive me if my questions are general in nature as I'm only responding to a tip, but feel obligated to follow through.

I was recently contacted by a source who claims to have worked on the 2008 Hillary Clinton campaign and is alleging that Marlon Marshall made unwelcome sexual advances and propositions towards women on the campaign repeatedly. The allegation is that he would "corner women, make them uncomfortable and make suggestions about having sex."

The source encouraged me to contact women who worked under him in the Nevada office.

I was wondering if you were able to describe your experience with Marshall and if any of this rings true, with you or anyone else you know who worked there.

The source also claims that Robby Mook was made aware of the issue, but declined to act on it or intervene because he is personal friends with Marshall. Do you know if there is any truth to this?

Again, my apologies for the personal nature of the questions, but it is information that was recently provided to me.

If there's any light you can shed on this, whether there's truth to it, or if it's completely off base, I would appreciate that. I understand the sensitive nature of the allegations so am happy to protect your identity at this point, unless you feel otherwise compelled to speak out.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

David
