

Hillary Clinton (D)

Top Industries, federal election data Election cycles covered: 2016

Select data type:

Select source of funds:

This page shows contributions sorted by industry to the candidate's campaign committee plus any super PACs or hybrid PACs working on his or her behalf.

Rank	Industry	Total
1	Securities & Investment	$21,030,361
2	Retired	$16,929,596
3	Lawyers/Law Firms	$14,425,731
4	Building Trade Unions	$9,537,850
5	Non-Profit Institutions	$9,339,955
6	TV/Movies/Music	$9,023,435
7	Women's Issues	$5,274,022
8	Education	$5,023,279
9	Democratic/Liberal	$5,015,410
10	Misc Finance	$4,937,298
11	Real Estate	$4,293,118
12	Business Services	$4,018,558
13	Printing & Publishing	$3,757,785
14	Health Professionals	$3,229,666
15	Civil Servants/Public Officials	$2,396,570
16	Electronics Mfg & Equip	$2,302,322
17	Pro-Israel	$2,240,783
18	Pharmaceuticals/Health Products	$2,044,065
19	Misc Business	$1,665,797
20	Hospitals/Nursing Homes	$1,240,581

Percent of Contributions Coded, Candidate Committee only

■ Coded $72,011,797 (65.1%)

■ Not Coded $38,560,844 (34.9%)

NOTE: Federal-level numbers are for the 2016 election cycle and based on Federal Election Commission data released electronically on Monday, March 21, 2016.

Feel free to distribute or cite this material, but please credit the Center for Responsive Politics. For permission to reprint for commercial uses, such as textbooks, contact the Center: info@crp.org

<https://www.opensecrets.org/pres16/indus.php?cycle=2016&id=N00000019&type=f>