

OBAMA SEIZING SOLE AUTHORITY FOR US DEFENSE

by WILLIAM BIGELOW (/COLUMNISTS/WILLIAM-BIGELOW) | 30 Dec 2012 | 343 | POST A COMMENT

In an attempt to seize total control over national security and bypass congress, a frightening new step by the Obama Administration is coming into play. As noted (<http://online.wsj.com/article/SB10001424127887323476304578197503933266898.html>) in Friday's Wall Street Journal in an op-ed by John Bolton and John Woo, a State Department advisory group that is run by former Secretary of Defense William Perry is advising that the U.S. and Russia both reduce nuclear weapons without a treaty, as a treaty would require ratification by Congress. This would allow Obama and his executive branch to unilaterally cut our nuclear weaponry and ignore the treaty clause of the Constitution.

As Bolton and Woo point out, the US has a greater global responsibility than Russia; Iran and North Korea, neither of which is far from Russian interests, can only be countered by U.S. military strength. In addition, they note that Russia is not a trustworthy partner in weapons reduction; it has violated many arms-control agreements, such as the 1991 Presidential Nuclear Initiatives.

Some of the inherent problems in the seizure by this executive branch of decision-making power is Barack Obama's desire to deeply cut our nuclear forces. A joint decision with Russia would place long-term limits on our cache of arms, thus placing constraints on us catching up if Russia decides to go ahead and build and the blurring of the lines deliberately drawn by the Constitution's Framers separating the executive and legislative branches power.

Obama has made no secret of his desire to dismantle our nuclear capacity; the New Start

BREITBART VIDEO PICKS

Treaty he championed in 2011 forced the U.S. to observe a ceiling of 700 strategic delivery vehicles and 1,550 strategic warheads, and this past March he stated his desire to cut our arsenal further:

“... a step we have never taken before – reducing not only our strategic nuclear warheads but also tactical weapons and warheads in reserve.”

It is naïve to assume that Obama is simply blind to the results of his actions and trusts the world around him to act with generosity. There has been too much evidence of Russia’s support of Iran’s nuclear weapons program, and Russia has cunningly avoided supporting sanctions on North Korea for its rocket launches; in December, Georgy Toloraya, Director of Korean Research at the Institute of Economics, simply said (http://english.ruvr.ru/2012_12_12/Russia-regrets-North-Korea-s-rocket-launch/):

"In Russia we believe that resolutions must be observed and UN decisions must be implemented. We think that North Korea has the right for space explorations but only after all the issues linked with the UN sanctions banning rocket launches with the use of ballistic technologies are settled. It is necessary to divide two aspects - we support the discussion of the rocket launch issue by the UN Security Council but we don't think that this must automatically mean tougher sanctions against Pyongyang."

Obama knows all this. His step-by-step evisceration of the United States is not confined to its economic system but its national defense as well.

The Congress is negligent in standing and holding up our Constitution and the branches of government!

They have allowed this fraud...this enemy of the United States of America to take us down...one piece at a time.

Remember...when the 'massa' spoke in soft tones to the Russian leader...and said wait until after the election and then he would have more of an ability to work with them...and now he is!

IMPEACH THIS BUMM...BEFORE THE DESTRUCTION OF AMERICA IS COMPLETE!

Everyone - get the media involved. Send this article to particulars on MSNBC, CNN and FOX. Do not let this slide. Show your outrage. If enough people complain, they cannot ignore this story. Also, send it to your large local newspapers (online), find the editor's email and send it. Do not let this joker's actions slide.

The Marxist Media has been complicit in this attitude - thus they will not step up and support our sovereign status as a Nation. They are all about the "blending" of One World Order. Who knows...someone (in the money power-houses) may have even promised Barry to be the Grand Pooooo-Bah.

I have always maintained that this man will slowly, and methodically dismantle our way of life...until he has made us into a 3rd World banana republic....and a dictatorship. Unless something stops the process, he will continue.

Do you really think the media gives a damn what this guy does? They are on his side. What we need is a total boycott of the network media. Not hard to do, just don't watch the network media news shows. A few months of that and maybe they will come around. They love Obama, but they love money more. If you dont watch, the advertisers won't advertise.

I appreciate your mindset, but systemic corruption isn't curable by personnel changes. And with half the citizenry consisting of habituated dependents, with 11 states having more such takers than makers (net contributors), the rot is well beyond the governing class. We are simply NOT the civilization that rose to greatness.

Let's face reality. We spend like France (42% of GDP), but pay only American sized taxes (24% of GDP). Rethink everything and plan for a continued slouch into irrelevancy, punctuated by bouts of Fannie Mayhem.

My New Years wish is for taxpayers to embrace cultural diversity by putting the severed heads of the governing class on sticks in their front yards, all across the nation.

But I'm not holding my breath.

Tyler, there is reality in what you say. Conservatives need to project their future and develop a hundred year plan that will return this country to Constitutional greatness. Problem is, it's a question of visionary leadership, unity of a critical mass of citizens, and creating a strategic plan. At this point, all we can hope for is Term-Limits, and an explosion of growth of, and perhaps union, between the Tea Party and the Libertarians.
