PROBABLE CAUSE:

On May 3, 2020 Kenosha Police Officer Raiche, in full uniform and operating marked squad #3343, responded to [REDACTED] City and County of Kenosha, state of Wisconsin for a report of an ex-boyfriend who had broken into the residence and stole vehicle keys, a vehicle and a debit card from the victim before fleeing.

Officers Matz and Raiche arrived on scene and spoke with [REDACTED]. Officer Raiche reports [REDACTED] was crying and visibly shaken, dressed only in a nightgown. [REDACTED] invited them in and explained that the previous evening she had left at approximately 8PM to attend a party in Milwaukee. [REDACTED] rented a vehicle for the weekend because she didn't think her vehicle would make it because of mechanical issues. [REDACTED] asked her sister [REDACTED] to stay the night and watch her three children while she was gone. [REDACTED] returned home at about 4:11AM, her sister was sleeping in the living room on the couch with numerous children so [REDACTED] brought her son with her into the first bedroom down the hallway on the east wall, they then lay down to go to sleep.

[REDACTED] stated at about 6AM she was woken up by [REDACTED], Jacob Blake, herein known as the defendant, standing over her saying, "I want my shirt." As [REDACTED] lay there, on her back, the defendant, suddenly and without warning, reached his hand between her legs, penetrated her vaginally with a finger, pull it out and sniffed it, and said, "Smells like you've been with other men."

Officer Raiche reported [REDACTED] had a very difficult time telling him this and cried as she told how the defendant assaulted her and then the defendant immediately left the bedroom.

[REDACTED] stated the defendant penetrating her digitally caused her pain and humiliation and was done without her consent.

[REDACTED] stated she was upset but collected herself and ran after the defendant out the front door and then realized her vehicle was missing. [REDACTED] ran back inside to her purse, which was on the kitchen counter and checked it, quickly realizing her key to her truck (Ford Explorer 2002), a black individual key and the only key for the vehicle and her Great Lakes Debit Card were missing. [REDACTED] immediately called 911 and while waiting for Officers, checked her Great Lakes Account and saw two fraudulent ATM withdrawals on May 3, 2020 that she did not make, both at PNC Bank, [REDACTED], both for $500, at an unknown time.

[REDACTED] stated she and the defendant have three children together but have never married together in the past year. They have been on and off. [REDACTED] defendant is unemployed, has no vehicle, and does not have a job. [REDACTED] stated she was currently living. [REDACTED] stated over the past eight years she and defendant had physically assaulted her several times when he drinks heavily.

[REDACTED] did not know how the defendant entered the apartment and thought maybe through a window.

Officer Matz spoke to [REDACTED]'s sister [REDACTED], and she advised after [REDACTED] had left, the defendant came to the residence for around ten minutes and interacted with the children. Officer Matz asked how the defendant may have entered and she said one of the children had broken a key off in the dead bolt lock so the only way the door locks is by latching the privacy chain. [REDACTED] stated when the defendant comes over he usually yells through a window for someone to let him in and most likely when he showed up he possibly had one of the children remove the chain latch so he could enter.

[REDACTED] stated she has let the defendant use her vehicle in the past, but that he always asks first, stating it was inappropriate for him to go into her purse.

NB signed the Waiver of Temporary Restraining Order document pertaining to this case.

[REDACTED] declined to be seen by an FNE, sheepishly saying she'd been through enough and was still very humiliated and upset by the sexual assault. Officer Raiche reports [REDACTED] was only wearing a nightgown with no undergarments, so there was nothing to collect for evidentiary purposes.

On May 4, 2020 Officer Courtier met with [REDACTED] who stated her Ford Explorer was returned. The defendant had told [REDACTED]'s sister, [REDACTED], he had parked the vehicle outside of her ([REDACTED]'s) residence with the keys. [REDACTED] stated she went to Illinois and picked up her vehicle, which was not damaged.

Detective Kunz reports he followed up with PNC Bank ATM and Kwik Trip and searched footage at the store between the hours of 0500-0615 on the morning of the incident and at this time, is was believed there was no video evidence based on the information obtained so far.

On May 5, 2020 Detective Kunz spoke with [REDACTED] who advised she had located her debit card in her rental after she had cancelled the card and she did not know who made the transactions.
